

Tuesday, October 13th 2026

at Martin Luther King Library

PUBLIC HISTORY DAY

Join the College of Social Sciences and Department of History for a day celebrating community-engaged scholarship and the return of Public History programming to SJSU.

AGENDA

10:30 am – 12:00 pm

Digital Humanities Center

Panel discussion: Building Inclusive and Community-Engaged Narratives

1:30 pm – 3:00 pm

MLK 225

Keynote: Dr. Kate Rogers, "A Line in the Sand: Public History, Collective Memory, and the Stories We Choose to Tell"

Dr. Kate Rogers

Chief Development Officer,
Tobin Center for the Performing Arts.
Founder & Principal,
Landmark Horizon Advisory.
Former President & CEO, Alamo Trust

Dr. Kiamsha Bynes

AFAM Studies, Black Women's Sporting Culture & Community Research

Dr. Alison Laurence

History, Public History & History of Science

Dr. Kerri Malloy

SISS, Native American & Indigenous Studies

Dr. Wendy Rouse

History, LGBTQ+ History & Social Science Teacher Education