Associated Students Bylaws

Article I: Intent

Section I - Names and Colors

- A. The name of the organization shall be Associated Students (A.S.) of San José State University (SJSU), otherwise referred to herein as Associated Students.

- B. The colors of this organization shall be Gold, White, and Blue.

Section II - Mission Statement

- A. Associated Students' mission is to support and represent the students of San José State University ("University" or "SJSU") by continuing the organization's legacy of student advocacy and leadership; to enhance SJSU students' education through high-quality programs and services; and to prepare students as they move toward a thoughtful and purposeful life after graduation.

Section III - Purpose

- A. We, the students of San José State University, in order to promote educational, social, and cultural opportunities; to govern and finance student activities; to facilitate participation in the University community; and to discharge the authority vested in the Association by the State of California and the President of the University, do hereby declare that equal opportunities shall be afforded to all students without regard to race, religion, creed, gender, sexual or affectional preference, age, ethnic origin, nationality, physical disability, or any other basis protected by law.

Section IV - Land Acknowledgement

- A. The Land Acknowledgement statement is to be read at all Associated Students-related events on campus; Examples include but are not limited to: Board of Director Meetings, Board Retreats, Committee Meetings, and A.S. events.

- B. "The San José State University community recognizes that the present-day Muwekma Ohlone Tribe, with an enrolled Bureau of Indian Affairs documented membership of over 550, is comprised of all of the known surviving American Indian lineages aboriginal to the San Francisco Bay region who trace their ancestry through the Missions Santa Clara, San José, and Dolores, during the advent of the Hispano-European empire into Alta California; and who are the successors and living members of the sovereign, historic, previously Federally Recognized Verona Band of Alameda County. Furthermore, the San José State University community recognizes that the university is established within the Tha'mien Ohlone-speaking tribal ethnohistoric territory, which based upon the unratified federal treaties of 1851-1852, includes the unceded ancestral lands of the Muwekma Ohlone Tribe of the San Francisco Bay Area. Some of the enrolled Muwekma lineages are descended from direct ancestors from the Tha'mien Ohlone tribal territory whose ancestors had affiliation with Mission Santa Clara. The San José State University community also recognizes the importance of this land to the indigenous Muwekma Ohlone people of this region, and consistent with our principles of community and diversity strives to be good stewards on behalf of the Muwekma Ohlone Tribe whose land we occupy.”

Article II: Membership

Section I - Members of Association

- A. All students registered at San José State University who have paid the Association fee shall be student members of the Association. All such members shall hold equal voting rights in campus-wide elections. There are no members of the Association as that term is defined in the California Corporations Code section 5056, or any successor thereto. Any action that would otherwise require approval by a majority of all members, as that term is defined in the California Corporations Code, shall only require approval by the Board of Directors.

Section II - Rights of Members

A. Initiatives

1. Student members of the Association shall have all rights and responsibilities as granted by the Associated Students Bylaws.
2. The procedures for an initiative petition from the student body shall be identical to those for recall, as defined in Article VI, Section II. The petition shall be signed by twenty-five percent (25%) of the student body votes in the previous election.
3. A majority of the votes cast in the said election shall be sufficient for the enactment of the said initiative measure.

Article III: Board of Directors

Section I - Functions

- A. The Board of Directors (also referred to herein as “Board”) shall be empowered to protect the interests and respond to the needs of the Associated Students, and to adopt measures necessary for its general welfare. In general, it shall perform all legislative functions on matters within the jurisdiction of the organization.
- B. The functions and powers of the Board of Directors are:
1. To operate as the supreme policy-making body of the organization.
 2. To delegate specific authority to the Executive Committee, group, or committee under the jurisdiction of the Board of Directors.
 3. To approve by two-thirds (2/3) vote of the voting membership of the Board of Directors the appointment of all Associated Students Board members and members of the Associated Students Committees or Student/Faculty Committees in accordance with Article VII, Section II.

4. To establish and determine the functions of the Associated Students Committees, including boards, commissions, and agencies as necessary to provide services to the organization.
5. To oversee the financial affairs of the Association, including approval of Association budgets and accountability of allocated funds.
6. To hear student recommendations concerning the revision of University and Associated Students policies and to make appropriate recommendations to the Associated Students President and/or the University President regarding the same.
7. To enforce the provisions of this document by means of appropriate rules and regulations as may be necessary.
8. To approve the hiring of the Executive Director by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the Board, as recommended by the A.S. President.
9. To enact legislation as authorized by the Association's Constitution and not in conflict with campus policy, the California Education Code, and/or Title 5 of the California Code of Regulations.
10. To review the Associated Students' Bylaws and Budget Policies.
11. To have such additional authority to enact such other legislation as may be deemed necessary for the general welfare of the Associated Students.

Section II - Membership

A. The members of the Board of Directors shall be:

- A.S. President (CEO)
- A.S. Vice President of Administration (CAO and Chair)

- B. Each member of the Board of Directors shall carry one (1) vote in accordance with Article VII, Section II, Subsection B.
- C. The University President shall appoint a University Representative to the Board of Directors to advise on policy and be a liaison between the Board of Directors and the campus. The University Representative shall serve an advisory role only and they are not to be considered to be a member of the Board of Directors.
- D. The Chair of the Board of Directors shall be the Vice President of Administration in accordance to Article III, Section IV, 2.

Section III - General Duties and Responsibilities

A. Assuming Office

1. The oath of office must be taken before someone elected or appointed to the Board of Directors starts that term of office. In the event that all members do not take the oath of office at the first meeting, the total membership of the Board is reduced accordingly pursuant to A.S. Bylaws.
2. All members of the Board of Directors shall read, sign, and adhere to the conflict of interest statement and required paperwork prior to the receipt of the first legislative stipend.
3. Members of the Board of Directors shall contact the Chairs of their prescribed university committees immediately upon being sworn in or upon appointment.

B. Maintaining Office

1. Regular attendance is essential to the Associated Students' efficient operation and for proper representation of the students of San José State University. All members of the Board of Directors, including Executives, are expected to conduct themselves in a professional manner during the course of their service and to fully participate in the activities of Associated Students. Members of the Board of Directors shall abide by the attendance policy in the A.S. Board Member Accountability System.
2. Members of the Board of Directors are required to keep a minimum of three (3) office hours a week during regular academic semesters, excluding meeting times. The office hours shall be posted on the A.S. Government website for the purpose of student accessibility. Should the Board member fail to hold the minimum amount of office hours, they will be subject to sanctions pursuant to the A.S. Board Member Accountability System.
3. With the exception of the A.S. President and A.S. Vice President of Finance, members of the Board of Directors are required to meet with the A.S. Vice President of Administration at least once a month unless deemed otherwise by the A.S. Vice President of Administration for the purpose of direction, support, and feedback regarding issues related to their respective position and A.S. at large. Should the A.S. Vice President of Administration or Director fail to meet at least once a month, the party responsible for failing to meet shall lose four (4) points pursuant to the A.S. Board Member Accountability System.

4. Members of the Board of Directors are required to attend and participate in each regular and special Board meeting.
5. Members of the Board of Directors are required to provide a written report for each regular Board meeting of the areas of their responsibility. Board members who serve as a liaison to the university or departments shall meet with an appropriate representative at least twice a semester and report on its status and activities at the following A.S. Board meeting. Failure to provide these reports by the specified deadline shall result in the Board member losing three (3) points pursuant to the A.S. Board Member Accountability System.
6. Members of the Board of Directors shall be provided adequate knowledge of SJSU matters and of the corporate affairs of A.S. to discuss issues concerning their areas of responsibility prior to making decisions or voting.
7. Members of the Board of Directors shall be subject to Legislative Directives pursuant to Article III, Section V.
8. The Board of Directors may censure a Board member by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the voting members present for violation of policies and procedures which may include but are not limited to: the Gloria Romero Open Meeting Act of 2000, California Education Code, CSU Auxiliary Organizations Compliance Guide, A.S. Bylaws, A.S. and CSU Executive Orders, and Robert's Rules of Order.

C. Conclusion of Term of Office

1. The individual members of the Board of Directors must maintain a semester and cumulative on-campus (SJSU) GPA of at least 2.0 while in office. Failure to meet these qualifications will result in immediate forfeiture of the position.
2. The Board of Directors may declare a seat vacant by two-thirds (2/3) vote of the total voting membership as recommended by consensus of the Board if a member fails to complete their prescribed duties.
3. A.S. will place a registration hold on the records of any member of the Board of Directors who fails to return all A.S. property, which may include, but is not limited to, keys, laptops, iPads, binders, and confidential materials, upon completion of the term.

5. The Chair shall be responsible for the communication of the actions of the committee/Board to the appropriate parties.
6. The Chair shall provide notice of regular Board of Directors or committee meetings to any person who requests such notice in writing. Said notice shall be in the form of the agenda for the meeting and shall be made available to the public for inspection at least seventy-two (72) hours prior to the regular Board of Directors or Committee meeting. Said notice will be available through the A.S. Government Administrative Assistant.
7. In the absence of the Recording Secretary or assigned minute taker, the Chair may appoint an acting secretary to perform the delegated duties.
8. The Chair shall conduct and declare all votes. If any member doubts the vote, a roll call may be requested. All Resolutions and Legislative Directives must be passed by roll call vote.
9. The Chair shall be responsible for the preparation of the agenda, which will include all pertinent legislation, petitions, and communications. These same materials shall be delivered to members of the Board or Committee at least seventy-two (72) hours before the regular Board or Committee meeting.

Section VIII - Parliamentary Authority

A. General Rules

1. Robert's Rules of Order, latest edition, shall be the parliamentary authority of the Board of Directors and its committees. In cases of conflict between Robert's Rules of Order and Board Rules as adopted in these Bylaws, Board Rules shall prevail.
2. No member shall speak for more than five (5) minutes or two (2) times on any question except when an extension is granted by the Chair, subject to appeal. A member rising to speak in protest shall be allowed to speak after the deciding vote for a period not to exceed three (3) minutes. A Board of Directors or committee member may yield to anyone who wishes to speak on an issue during a period of discussion.
3. The Chair may call upon a member of the gallery to speak on an issue during a period of debate. Members of the gallery are subject to the same limitations as members of the Board of Directors. This opportunity will occur during discussion and prior to voting as regulated by the acting Chair.

Section IX - Officers of the Board

A. Chair

1. The Chair will have such responsibilities as listed in Section VII of this Article.

B. Vice Chair/Parliamentarian

1. The Vice Chair/Parliamentarian shall be the A.S. Director of Internal Affairs.
2. The duties of the Vice Chair are to:
 - a. Assume Duties of the Chair in their absence.
 - b. Assist the Chair in carrying out their duties.
 - c. Maintain accurate meeting minutes if the recording secretary is absent.
 - d. Be able to reference Robert's Rules of Order, Gloria Romero Open Meeting Act of 2000 and relevant Rules of Order during times of a parliamentary inquiry.

C. Recording Secretary

1. The Associated Students Board shall appoint a designee from the Student Government Department to be the Recording Secretary. The Recording Secretary:
 - a. Shall prepare such memoranda and other materials as the Board or the Chair shall direct.
 - b. Shall prepare and distribute to each Board of Directors unapproved minutes on a timely basis. The Board of Directors may approve its minutes at the next meeting unless an objection is made by a member of the Board or a member of the public.
 - c. Shall be responsible for the grammatical accuracy of the minutes.
 - d. Shall enter in the minutes the absence or tardiness of the Board of - Directors during a meeting.

- e. Shall prepare and distribute to each Board of Director any special meeting notices twenty-four (24) hours prior to meeting.
