Alpha Xi Delta Sorority

Case Creation Date:

- March 3, 2023

Incident Summary:

- It was reported by a neighbor that around 12:10 AM on 3/3/23 that a "wild outdoor party" was occurring at Theta Chi. It was further stated that the party was "extremely loud" and could be heard from 15th Street. It is alleged that this violated local noise ordinances. University Police responded and asked for the party to be stopped. It was also noted that the event between Alpha Xi Delta and Theta Chi was not approved due to a late submission of paperwork. This notification was sent on Tuesday, February 28, 2023 at 10:30 AM.

Student Organization Code of Conduct Violations:

- (05)(C) Excessive Noise
 - (5) Disorderly Conduct:
 - (C) Excessive noise which is disruptive to the campus or surrounding community.
- (08)(A) Failure to Comply
 - (A) Failure to comply with the directions of University officials acting in the performance of their official duties.
- (08)(C) Failure to Comply with Student Organizations Handbook
 - (C) Failure to follow all policies and procedures established by the University pertaining to student organizations, including fraternities and sororities, as outlined in the Student Organizations Handbook.
- (18) Risk Management of Events
- (24) Violations of Civil or Criminal Law

- Student organizations in violation of local, state or federal law are in violation of the University Code of Conduct. University sanctions for such violations may be imposed independent of and prior to the disposition of any legal proceeding in a civil or criminal justice case.

Sanctions:

With respect to the information listed above, the following additional sanctions/stipulations apply:

- Organization Disciplinary Probation until December 31, 2023. Disciplinary Probation is a period of time in which the privileges of continuing as a RSO are conditioned upon future behavior. Conditions may include the potential loss of specified privileges to which a RSO would otherwise be entitled, and/or the probability of more severe disciplinary sanction if the organization is found to violate the Student Organization Code of Conduct or any University policy during the probationary period. Any Conduct-related sanctions related to a violation of Organization Disciplinary Probation shall be determined by the Director of Student Conduct and Ethical Development, or the person's designee, in accordance with University policy governing the student organization Conduct process.
- Organization Event Restriction – Substance-free event restriction effective through May 31st, 2023. During the substance-free period, any event or activity that a reasonable person may label as an organization-affiliated or attended function must be substance free. SJSU defines a substance-free environment as a setting that prohibits and lacks the presence of drugs and alcohol, including any legal medicinal and/or recreational drugs recognized by California state law. While SJSU Office of Student Involvement procedures and expectations must be followed and adhered to when planning, registering, and hosting organizational events, unofficially-recognized gatherings of individuals may also be considered organizational events according to the reasonable person standard.
- Meeting with the Director of Student Involvement, or the person's designee. The president of the organization is required to attend a meeting with the Director of Student Involvement, or the person's designee, to discuss Risk management duties pertaining to, but not limited to the following: Noise levels, uninvited guests, crowd control, etc...
